From our Spiritual Director, Fr. Troy Nevins

Impossible to believe that Labor Day is fast approaching and with it, the conclusion of a very beautiful summer! Hopefully your summer was blessed by time spent with family, friends and God's good creation.

Secretary of Labor, Thomas E. Perez states that Labor Day, "...constitutes a yearly national tribute to the contributions workers have made to the strength, prosperity, and well-being of our country."

The Catechism of the Catholic Church, #2460 says, "By means of his labor man participates in the work of creation. Work united to Christ can be redemptive."

Having ourselves succumbed to God's relentless pursuit, our first and greatest labor MUST be to help facilitate this same union for others.

Some people are very comfortable sharing their faith with individuals they don't know. Others are engaged in intense intercession for the conversion of souls. ALL of us can introduce someone to Catholic Radio!

Spread the Word!

Fr. Troy Nevins

Parish Awareness Weekends

We are offering this service at no charge, however, we're asking those who participate to help fundraise for Catholic radio. ### All Catholic women are invited!

Grand Rapids, Michigan will be the site of the National Council of Catholic Women's 2014 National Convention. Held at the Amway Grand Plaza Hotel from September 24-27, the convention is the annual gathering of women leaders from more than 4,000 affiliated Catholic women's organizations in parishes and dioceses and individual members throughout the United States. More than five hundred Catholic women—representing hundreds of thousands of Catholic women nationwide—will gather from across the country for leadership development, spiritual renewal, and fellowship.

Dr. Ralph Martin and Teresa Tomeo are keynote speakers at the 2014 convention, whose theme is "Be the Voice of Catholic Women: Catholic Women United in Truth."

The opening liturgy is Thursday, September 25th, at 4:30 pm, concelebrated by the Most Reverend James V. Johnston, Jr., Bishop of the Diocese of Springfield-Cape Girardeau, and the Most Reverend Earl Boyea, Bishop of the Diocese of Lansing, and Most Reverend John C. Nienstedt, Archbishop of the Archdiocese of Saint Paul and Minneapolis. Throughout the weekend there will be many additional opportunities for worship and prayer.

All Catholic women interested in spiritual enrichment, leadership development, and service to the Church and society are invited to register and attend the convention. Full registration information is online at www.nccw.org.
