From our Spiritual Director, Fr. Troy Nevins

During this warm and sunny month of July, we celebrate and praise God for Independence Day and the freedom we enjoy in this beautiful country of ours! We must never forget that this gift of liberty was not free, but came at an enormous price.

Freedom, first and foremost, is a gift from God which the Catechism of the Catholic Church calls, "an outstanding manifestation of the divine image." CCC #1705 An image that we distorted in the beginning when we listened to the father of lies, choosing to disobey rather than obey our loving Creator.

"By his Passion, Christ delivered us from Satan and from sin." CCC #1708 Once again, an enormous price has been paid!

My reception and utilization of the gift reflects the respect I have for the giver, more than it does for the gift itself! Through the gift of Holy Family Radio, you and I have a great opportunity to bring glory and honor to the Lord!

Spread the Word!

Fr. Troy Nevins

All Catholic women are invited!

Grand Rapids, Michigan will be the site of the National Council of Catholic Women's 2014 National Convention. Held at the Amway Grand Plaza Hotel from September 24-27, the convention is the annual gathering of women leaders from more than 4,000 affiliated Catholic women's organizations in parishes and dioceses and individual members throughout the United States. More than five hundred Catholic women—representing hundreds of thousands of Catholic women nationwide—will gather from across the country for leadership development, spiritual renewal, and fellowship.

Dr. Ralph Martin and Teresa Tomeo are keynote speakers at the 2014 convention, whose theme is "Be the Voice of Catholic Women: Catholic Women United in Truth."

The opening liturgy is Thursday, September 25th, at 4:30 pm, concelebrated by the Most Reverend James V. Johnston, Jr., Bishop of the Diocese of Springfield-Cape Girardeau, and the Most Reverend Earl Boyea, Bishop of the Diocese of Lansing, and Most Reverend John C. Nienstedt, Archbishop of the Archdiocese of Saint Paul and Minneapolis. Throughout the weekend there will be many additional opportunities for worship and prayer.

All Catholic women interested in spiritual enrichment, leadership development, and service to the Church and society are invited to register and attend the convention. Full registration information is online at www.nccw.org.

"My 3 daughters were given some Christmas money from their grandma. They all decided to donate it to Holy Family Radio to help support the station!" -- Michelle

"When I first heard that a Catholic radio station was starting in Grand Rapids, I thought 'Big Deal!' But once I started listening, I was completely amazed! I learn something new every time I listen." -- Jim
